PROFILE

Hello, my name is Risandy Rendy Ratunsee. I am a Information Systems student at BINUS University. I'm currently based in Kebon Jeruk, West Jakarta. I am young, but I have high enthusiasm and dedication to learn more about the field of information system technology. As an Information Systems student, I was trained to work on various projects, such as creating applications, analyzing businesses, and analyzing systems. I have also been a project manager when working on a systems analysis project, CEO when building the KentanginAja business, CMO when building the KrinChill business, and also being a UI UX Designer to create application displays.
